KENSIUM
Adobe Connector

Orders in Acumatica and Sync with Magento

You can place an order within Acumatica and sync the same into Magento. You need to follow the steps as described below.

Step 1: Create the Order in Acumatica.

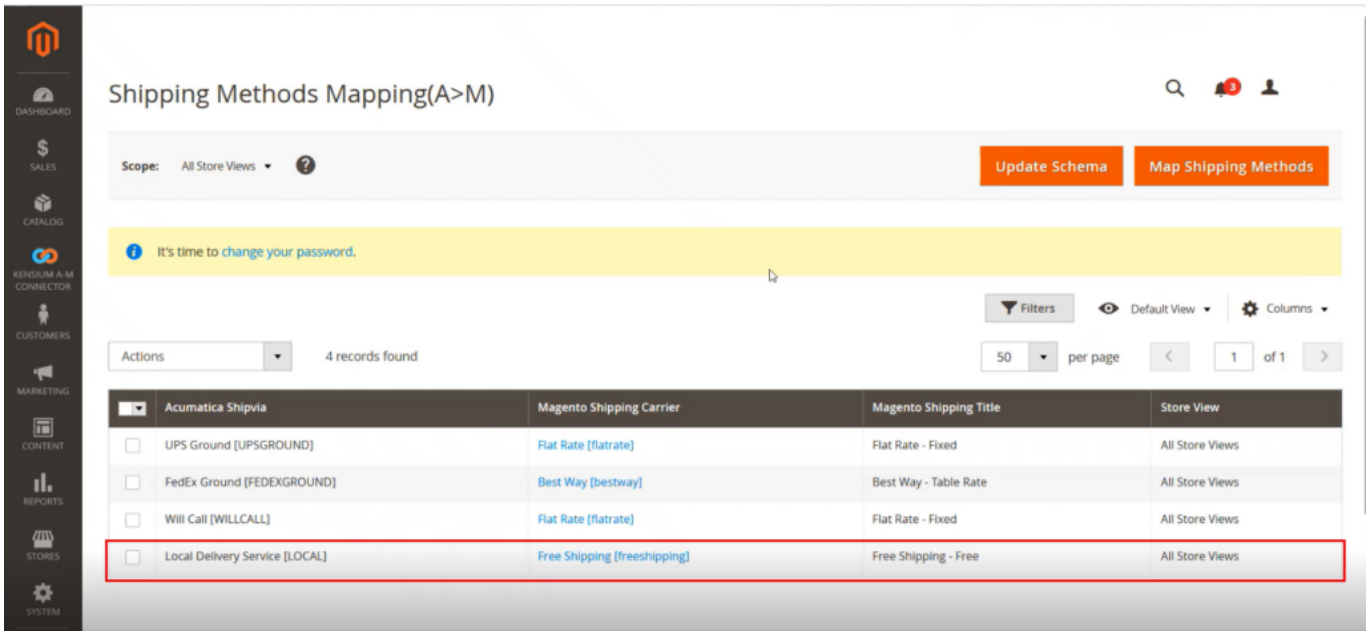

Order Creation in Acumatica

Step 2: Check the shipping mapping (A-M) from Magento.

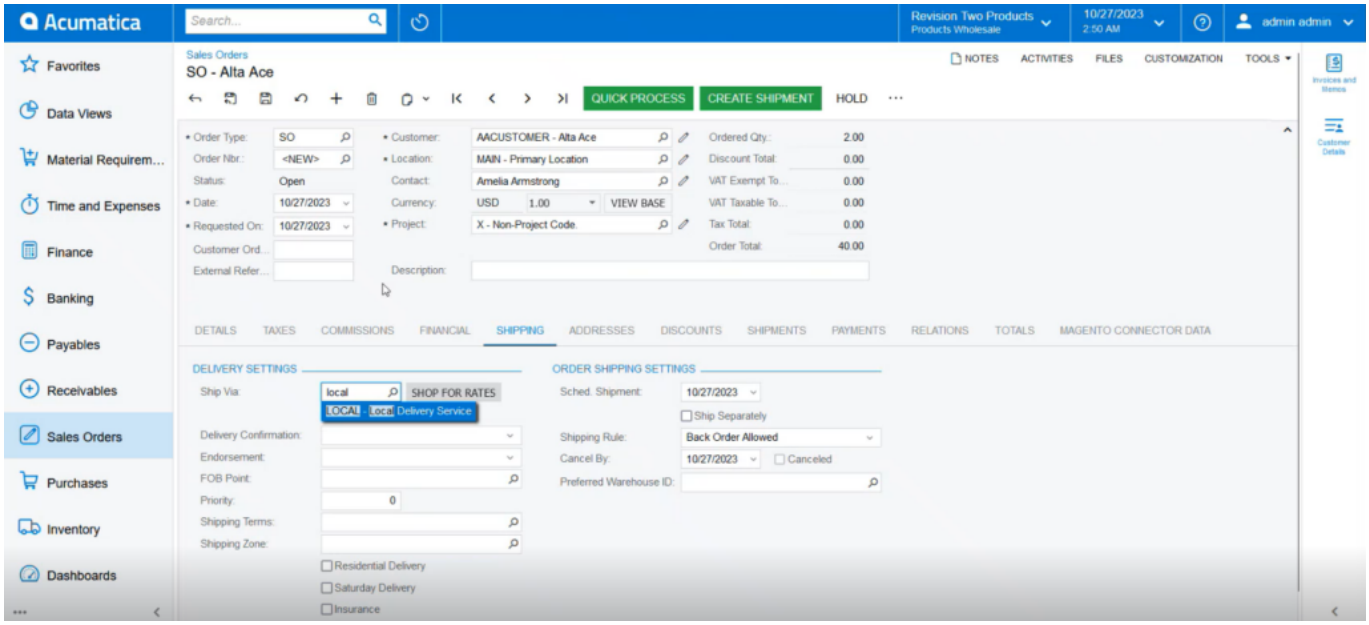

© 2025 Kensium LLC

KENSIUM

Check the Shipping Mapping in Magento

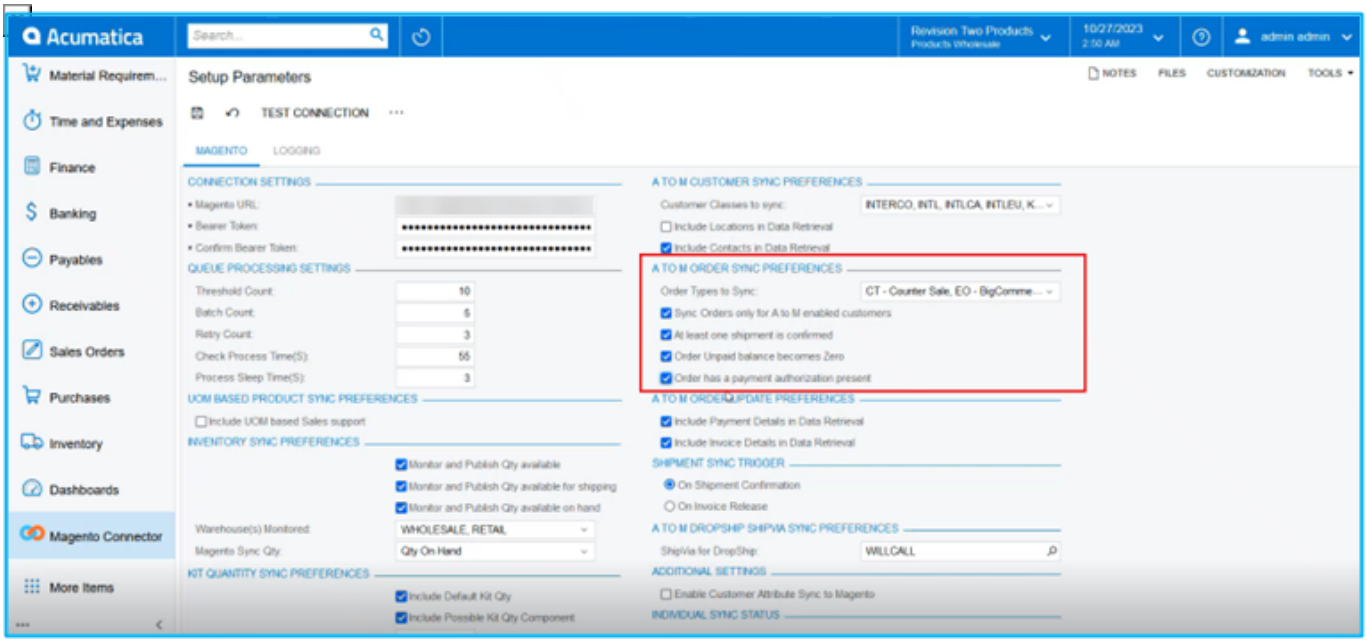

Step 3. Go back to Shipping details in Acumatica Sales Order and select the shipment.

Select the Shipment

© 2025 Kensium LLC

Step 4. Go to [Setup Parameters] to check [A-M Order Sync Preferences]. Any of the 3 conditions should match to sync the data.

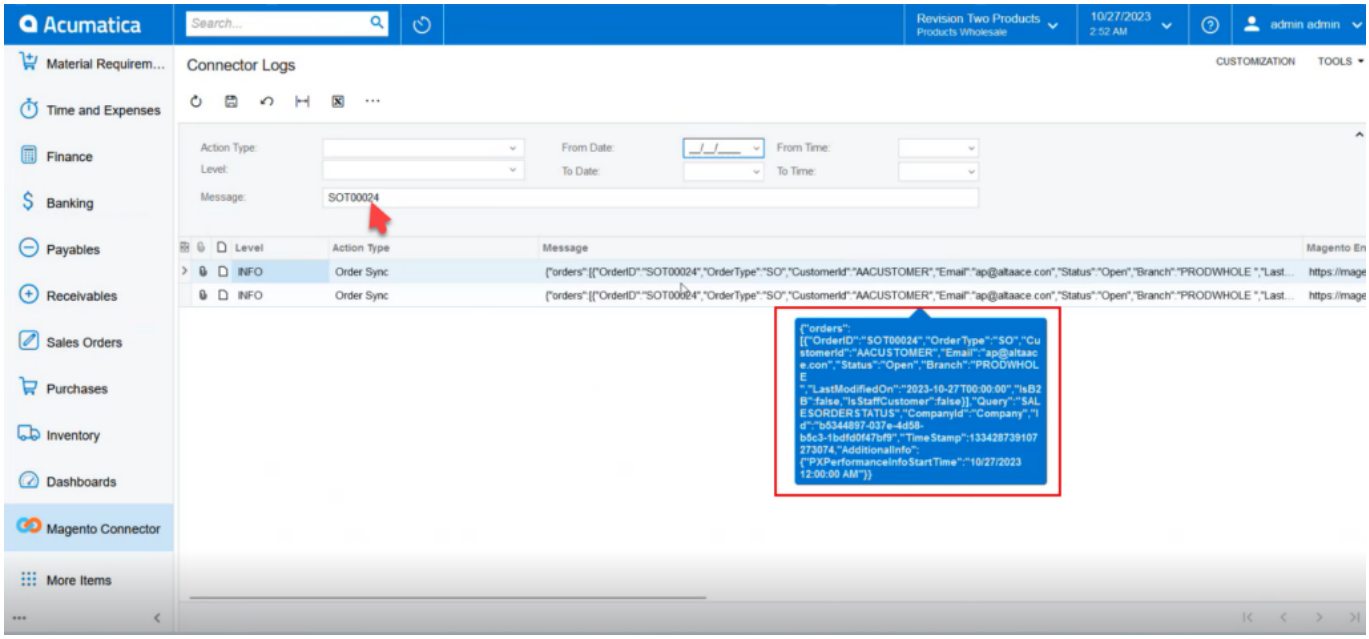

A To M Order Sync Preferences

Step 5. From payment check the unpaid balance amount. If it’s not 0.00 to satisfy the criteria create a payment record to change the unpaid balance to 0.00.

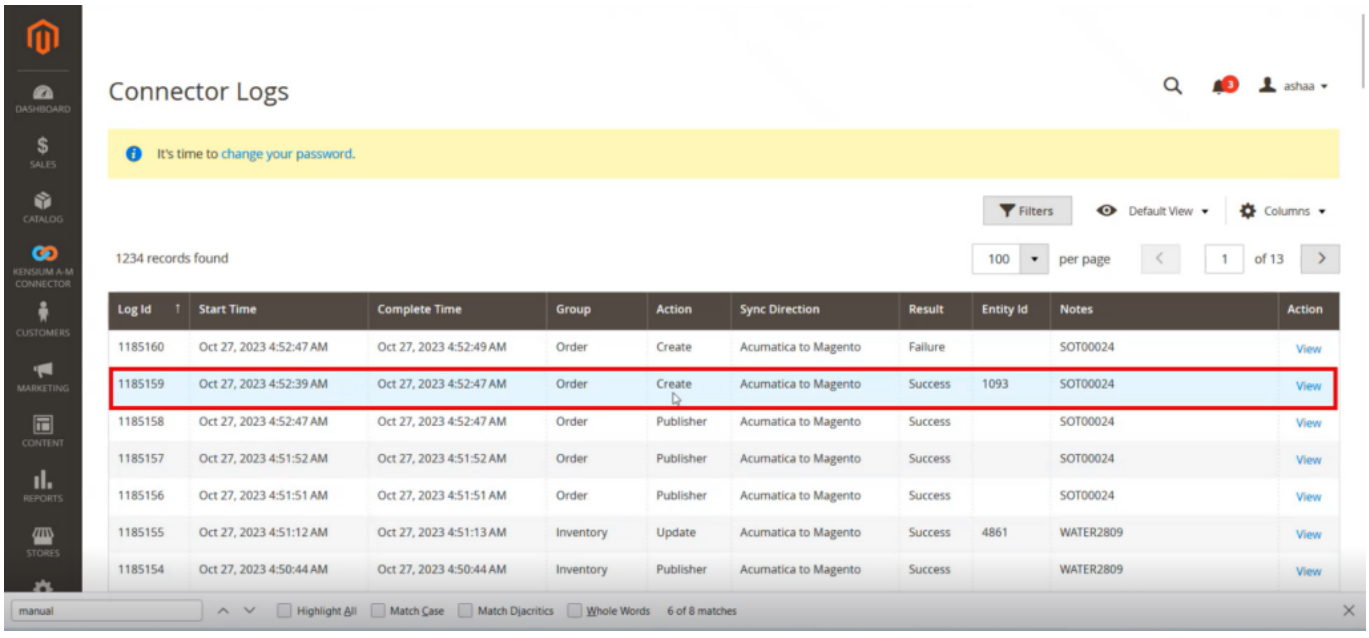

Step 6. To check the sync status, go to Reports -> Connector Log the following screen will appear.

© 2025 Kensium LLC

Acumatica Connector Log

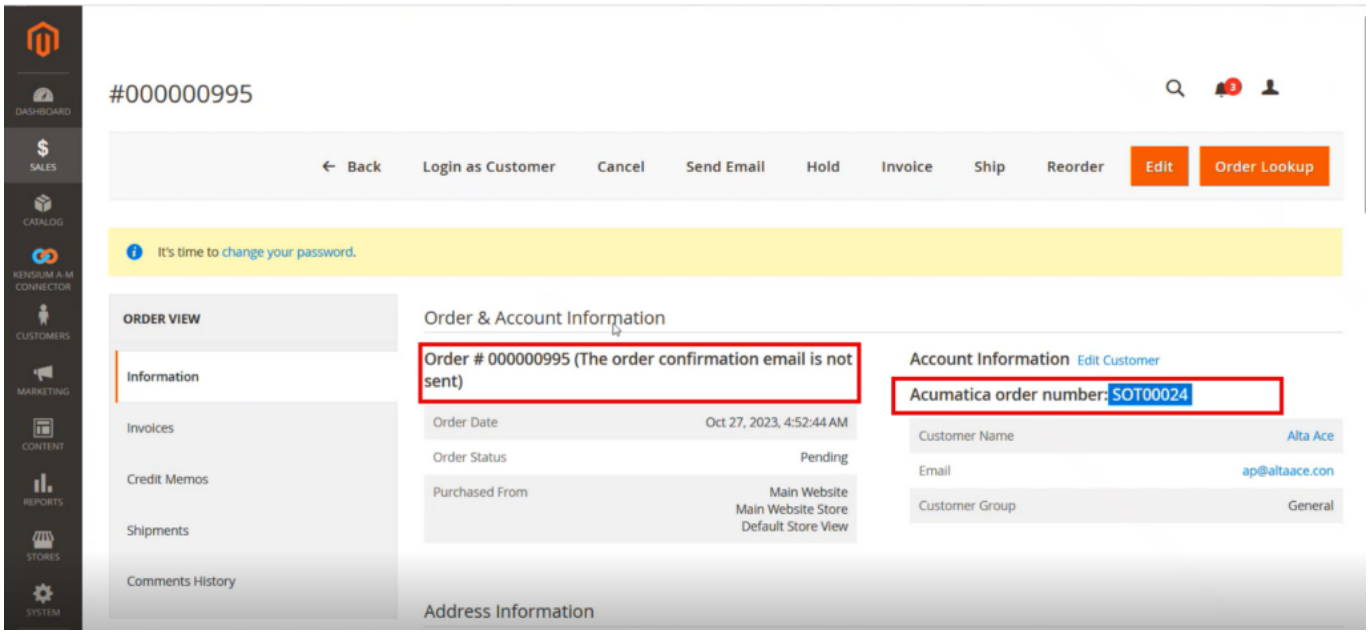

Step 7. Go to Magento Connector Log to check the Order Sync Status.

© 2025 Kensium LLC

Order Creation is Successful

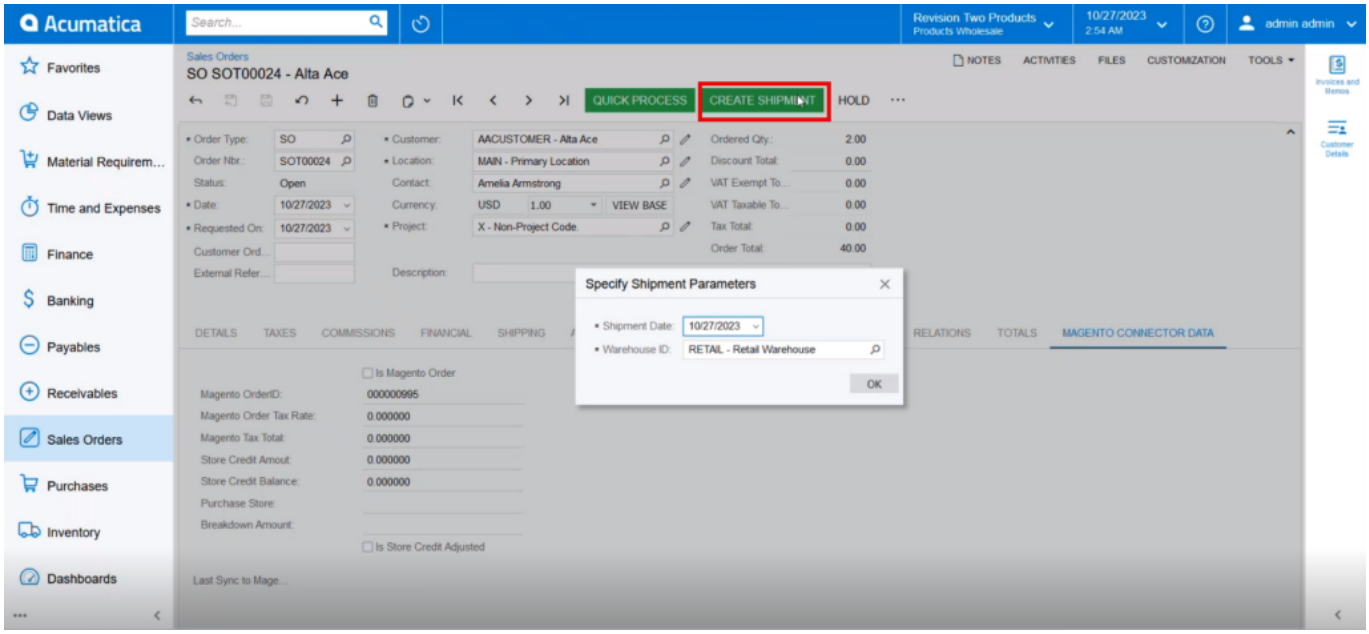

Step 8: Click on [View] and go to the Order. You can view the Acumatica and Magento Order Number in the Order Screen.

Acumatica Order Number and Magento Order Number

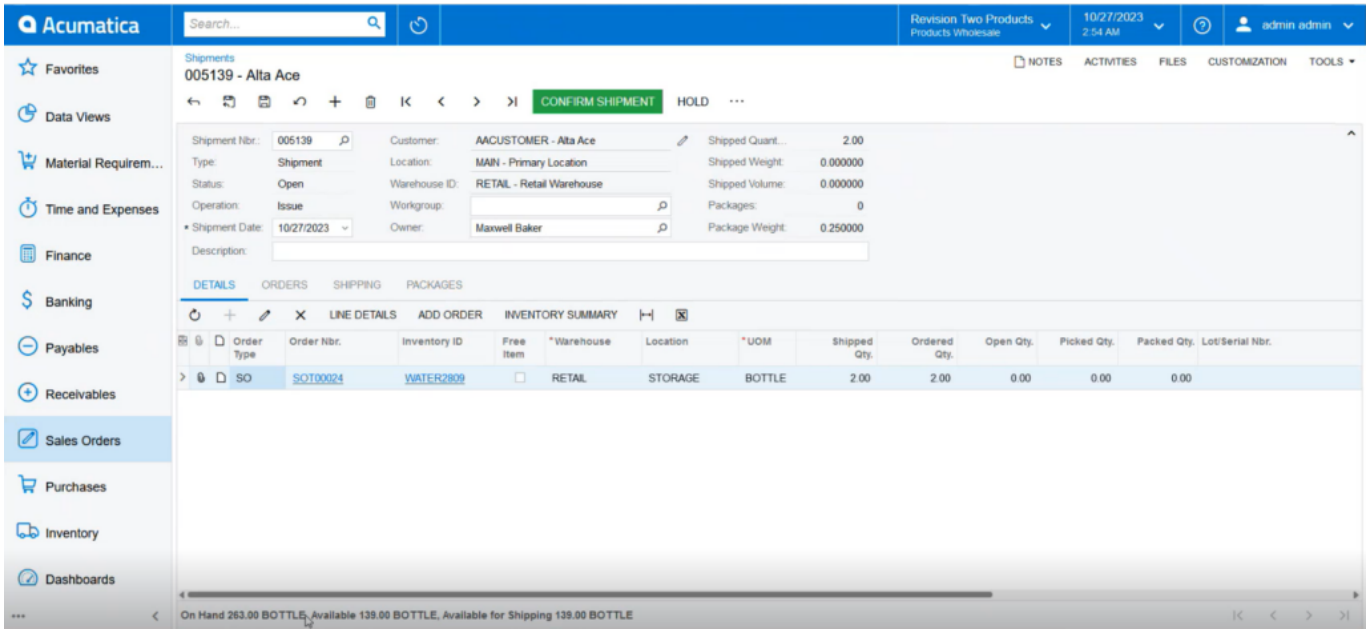

Step 9. Go to Acumatica sales order to create the Shipment.

© 2025 Kensium LLC

Create the Shipment

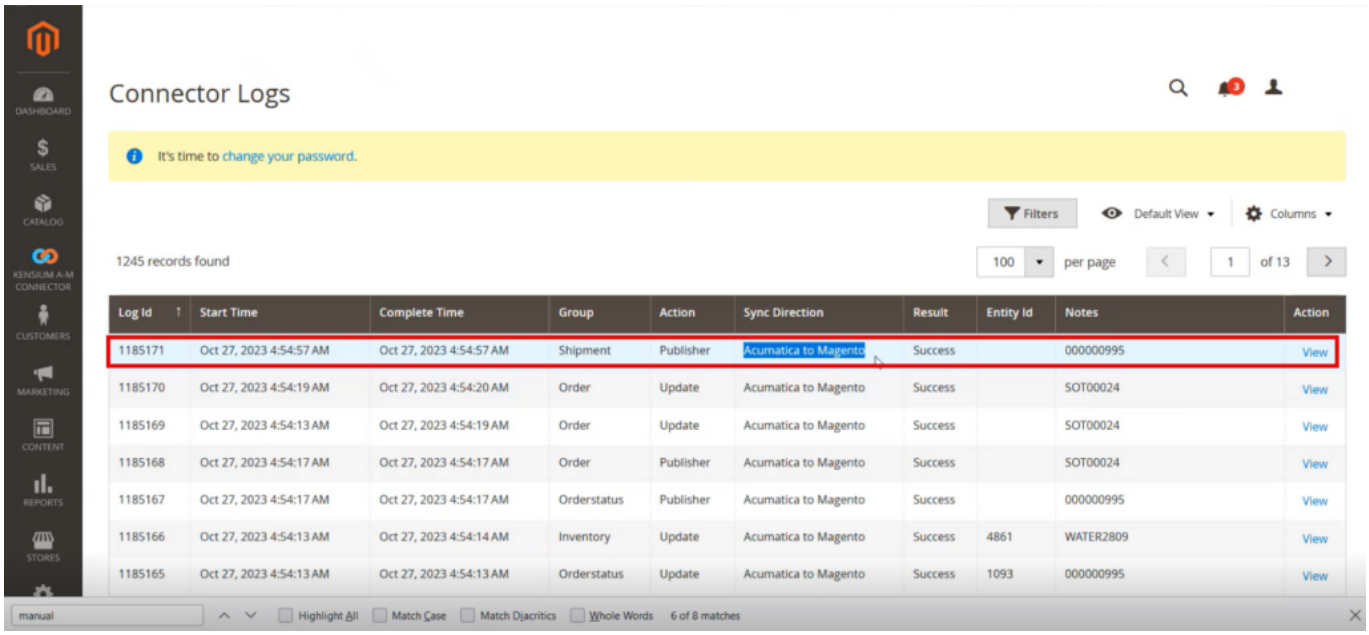

Step 10: Confirm the Shipment and Release the Invoice.

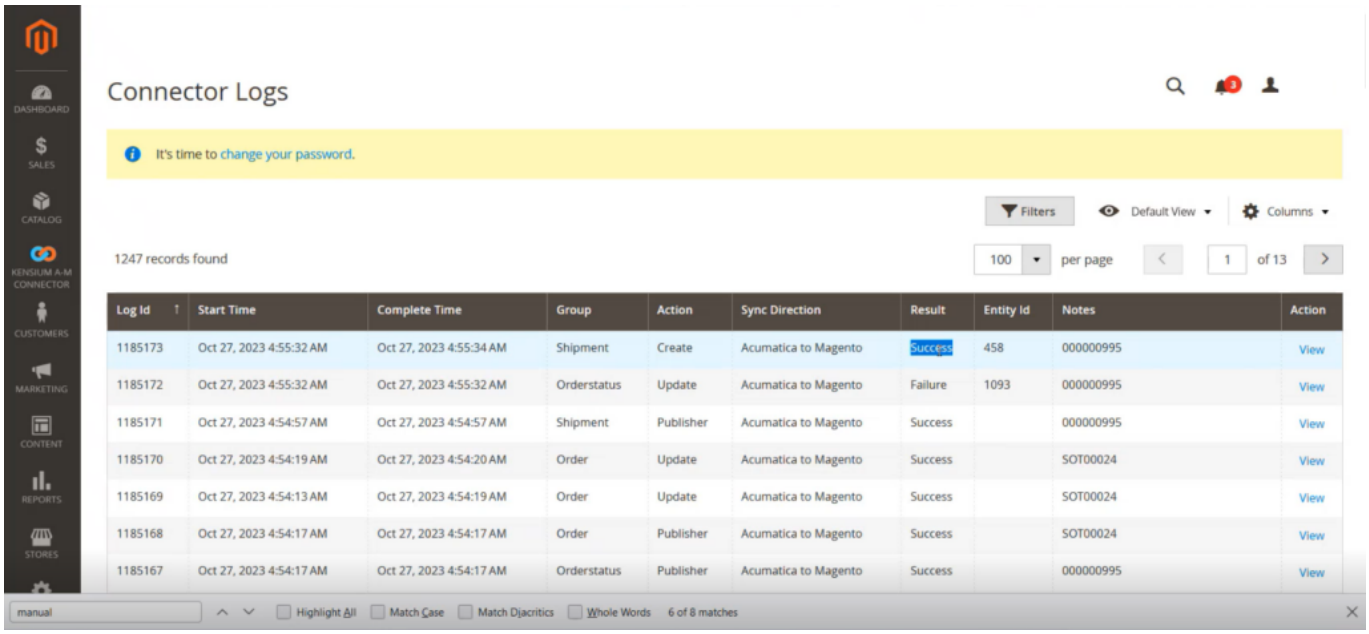

© 2025 Kensium LLC

Click on Confirm Shipment

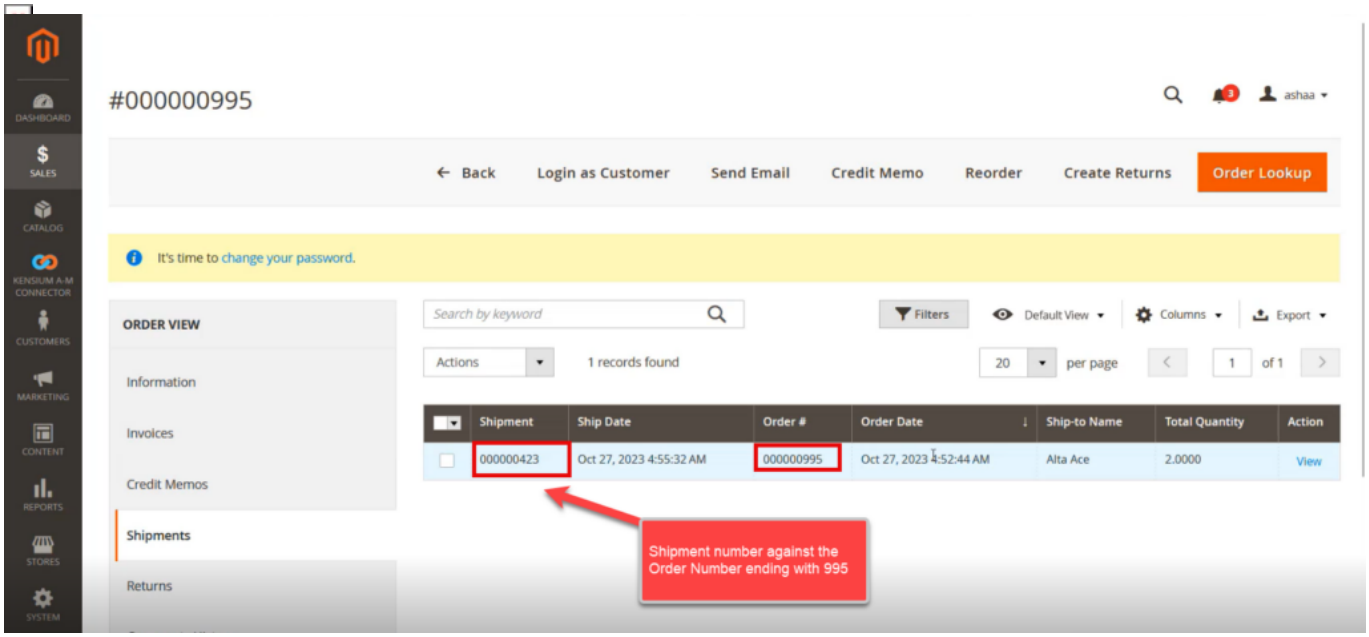

Step 11: Go to the Connector Log and it should be published unless you see any error. Shipment and invoices are created in Acumatica, however, the returns will take place in Magento.

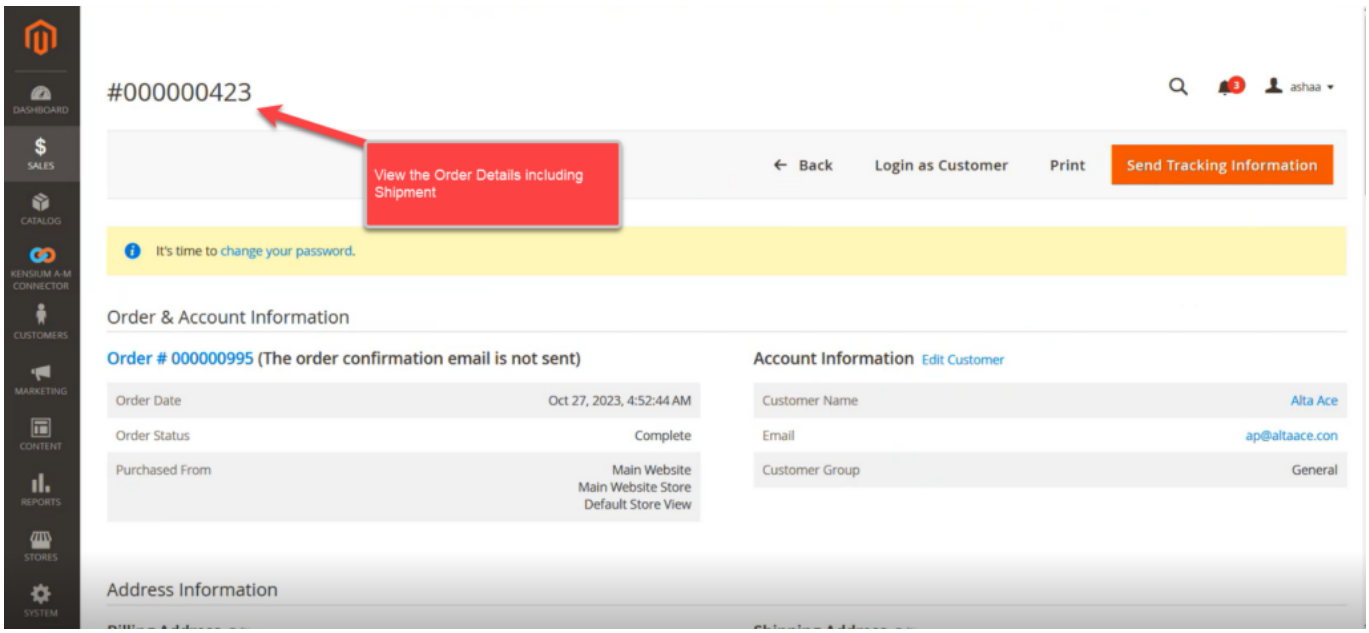

© 2025 Kensium LLC

Shipment Created in Magento

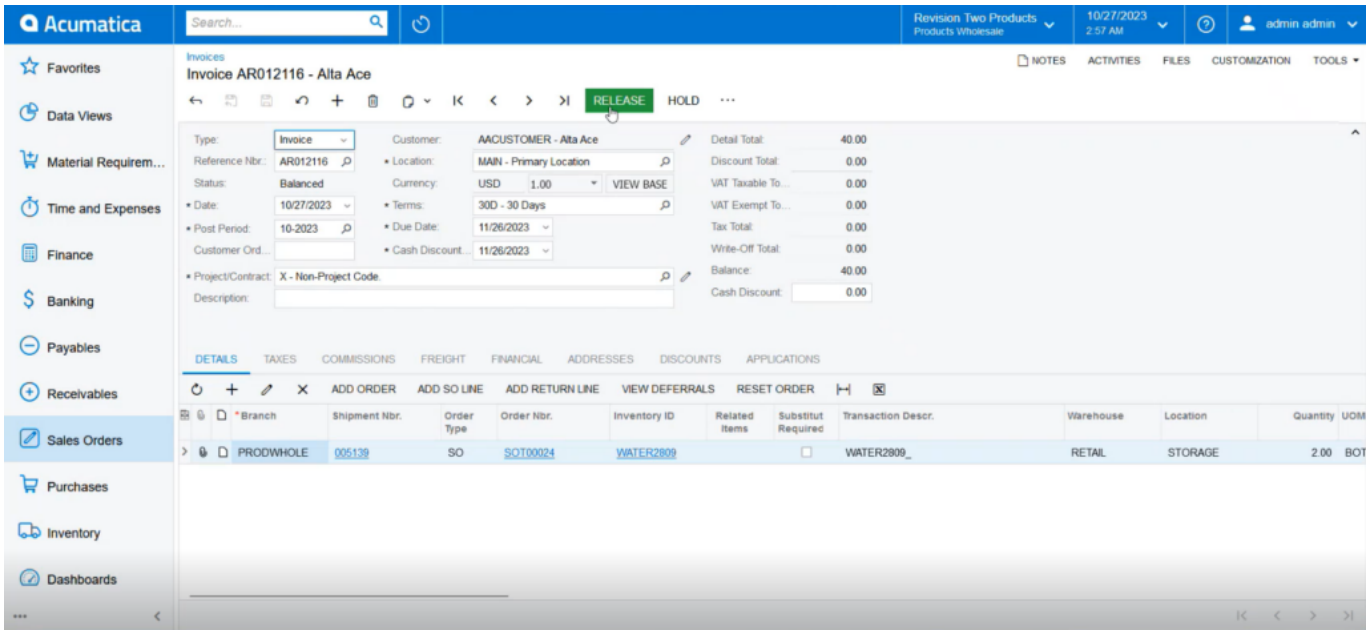

Shipment Number against the Order Number

© 2025 Kensium LLC

Shipment Details Screen

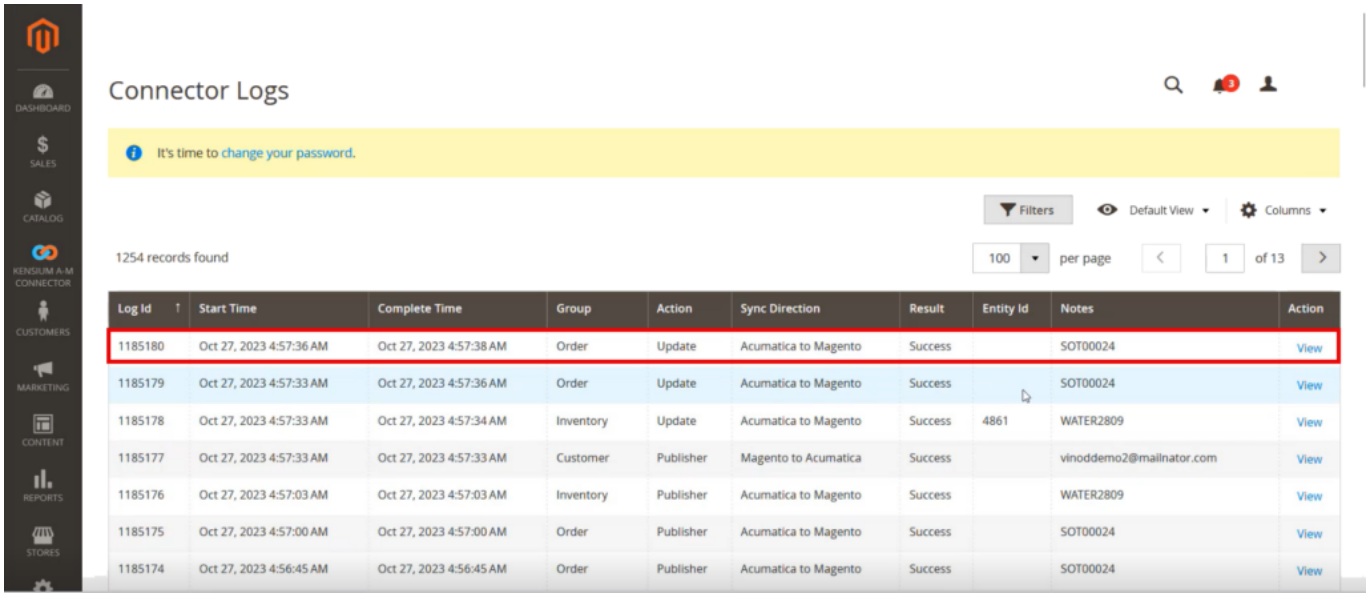

Step 12: Now Release the Invoice. After you release the invoice, the trigger will take place from Acumatica.

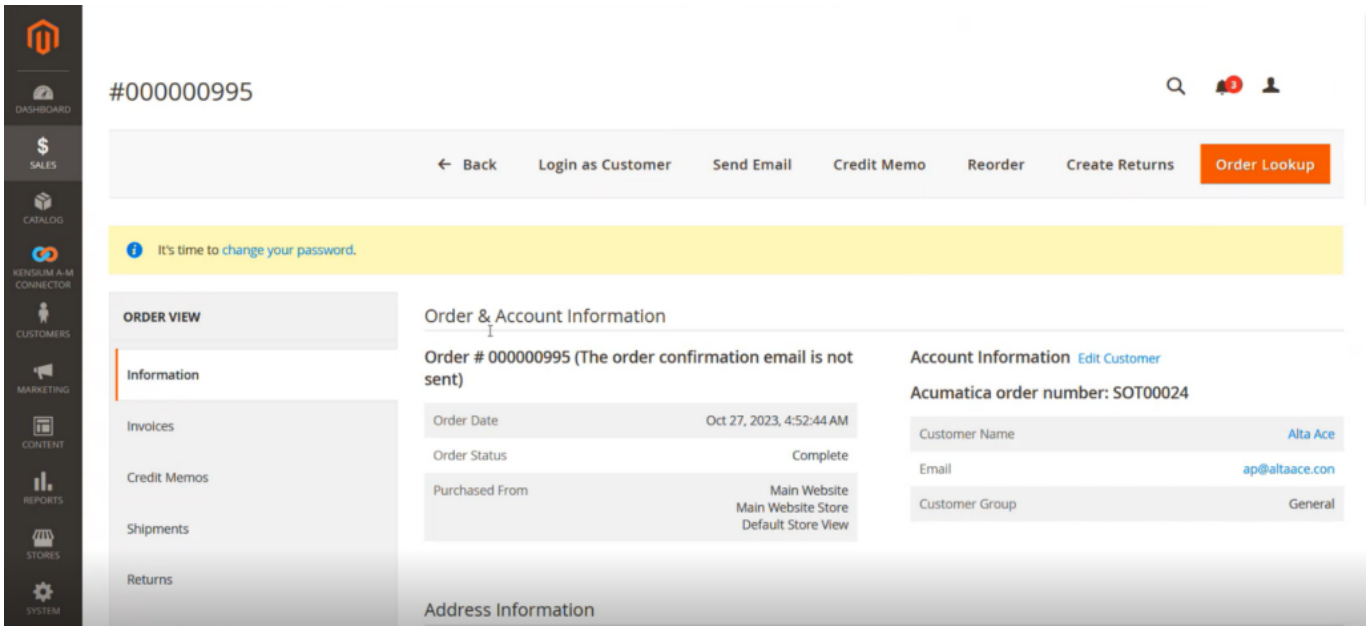

Release the Invoice

Step 13: Go to the Magento connector log for the update.

© 2025 Kensium LLC

Order Updated in Magento Connector

© 2025 Kensium LLC