

Add PayPal API Details to Acumatica

- Using your recently generated API credentials, navigate to the Sales Order workspace in Acumatica and click [PayPal Configuration Settings].

Acumatica

Search...

Revision Two Products
Products Wholesale

Banking

Projects

Payables

Receivables

Customization

Sales Orders

Purchases

Inventory

Payroll

Dashboards

PayPal Invoicing Configuration Settings

TEST CONNECTION

* PayPal ID:

Description:

☐ Active

SETTINGS PAYMENT METHODS

Detail ID	Description	* Value
-----------	-------------	---------

PayPal invoicing preferences

- Enter the [Customer ID] in the corresponding Value field.
- Enter the customer's secret in the corresponding Value field.
- Enter the merchant's email in the corresponding Value field.
- This is the merchant's email associated with the created account.
- Enter the test mode.

Acumatica

Search...

Revision Two Products
Products Wholesale

11/25/2019
10:44 PM

?

☆ Favorites

🕒 Time and Expenses

📅 Finance

💰 Banking

📁 Projects

⊖ Payables

⊕ Receivables

📝 Sales Orders

PayPal Invoicing Configuration Settings ☆

NOTES FILES CUSTOMIZATION

TEST CONNECTION

* PayPal ID: PAYPAL

Description: PayPal Configuration Details

☒ Active

SETTINGS

PAYMENT METHODS

🔄 + × ⏮ ⏭

Detail ID	Description	* Value
> ClientID	PayPal Client ID	...
ClientSecret	PayPal Client Secret	...
MerchantEmail	PayPal Merchant Email ID	...
TestMode	Enable PayPal Mode (Test (1)/ Live(0))	...

PayPal Invoicing Configuration Settings

- Click [Test Connection] to ensure that the credentials entered are correct and the connection is established.
- A pop-up window will indicate if the connection was successful.
- Now that the connection has been established, you can send [PayPal invoices] to customers. The next section describes how to send PayPal invoices in Acumatica.