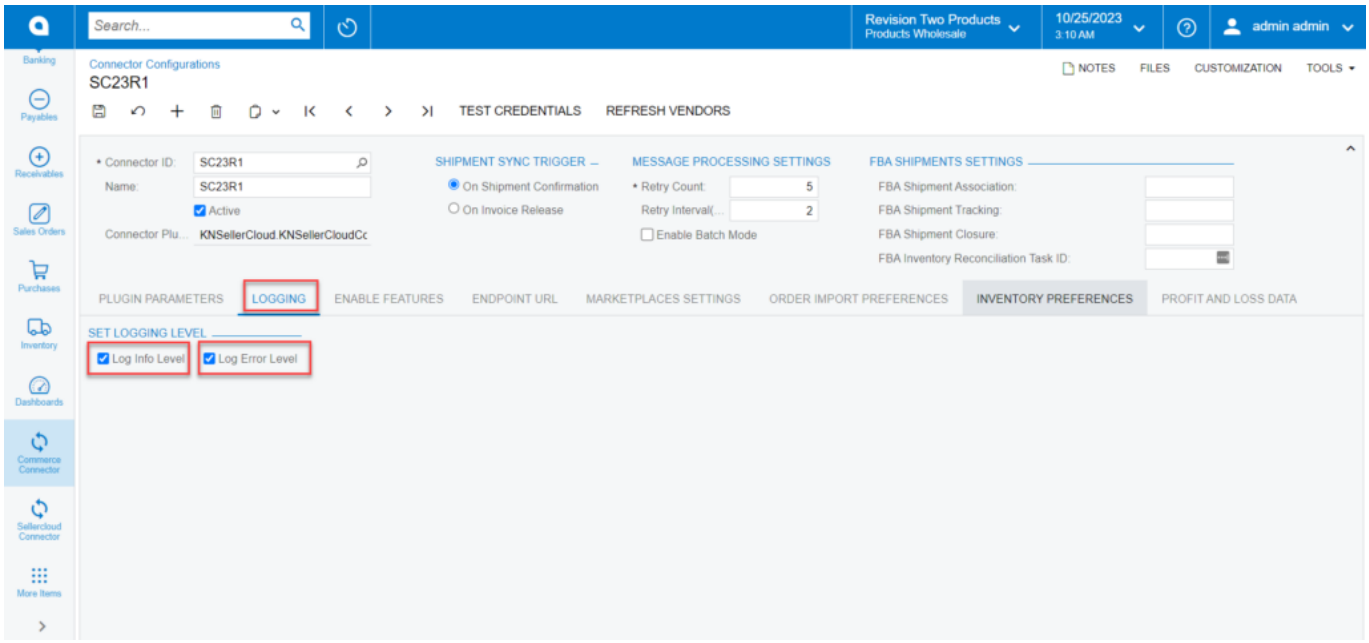
KENSIUM
Sellercloud Connector

Loggings

Loggings manage with information about transactions, process and system activities and provide a detailed history that can be useful for troubleshooting the system performance within the platform.

- Upon clicking [Logging], a new screen will display with SET LOGGING LEVEL.
  - Log info Level
  - Log Error Level

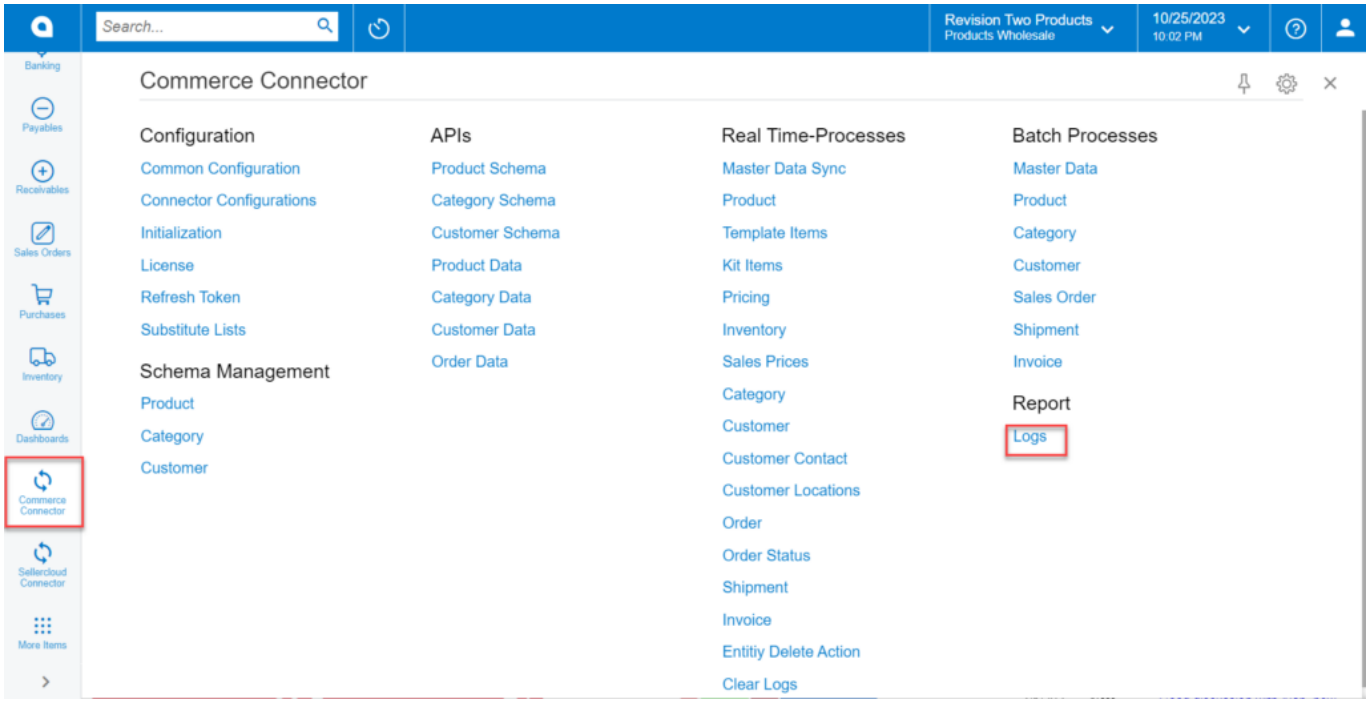


Logging screen

Log Info Level	Info: If enabled, the connector logs will display any passed or failed logs. Data that is being transferred from Acumatica to SellerCloud Connector.
Log Error Level	Error: If enabled, the connector logs will display any errored logs. Data that is being transferred from Acumatica to SellerCloud Connector.
Both	If both are enabled, the connector logs will display any passed or failed and errored logs. Data that is being transferred from Acumatica to SellerCloud Connector.

- To view the log info level, you need to navigate to the left panel in Acumatica and Click on [Commerce Connector].

© 2025 Kensium LLC
KENSIUM



Commerce Connector Logs

- You must choose the option [Logs] under the [Reports].
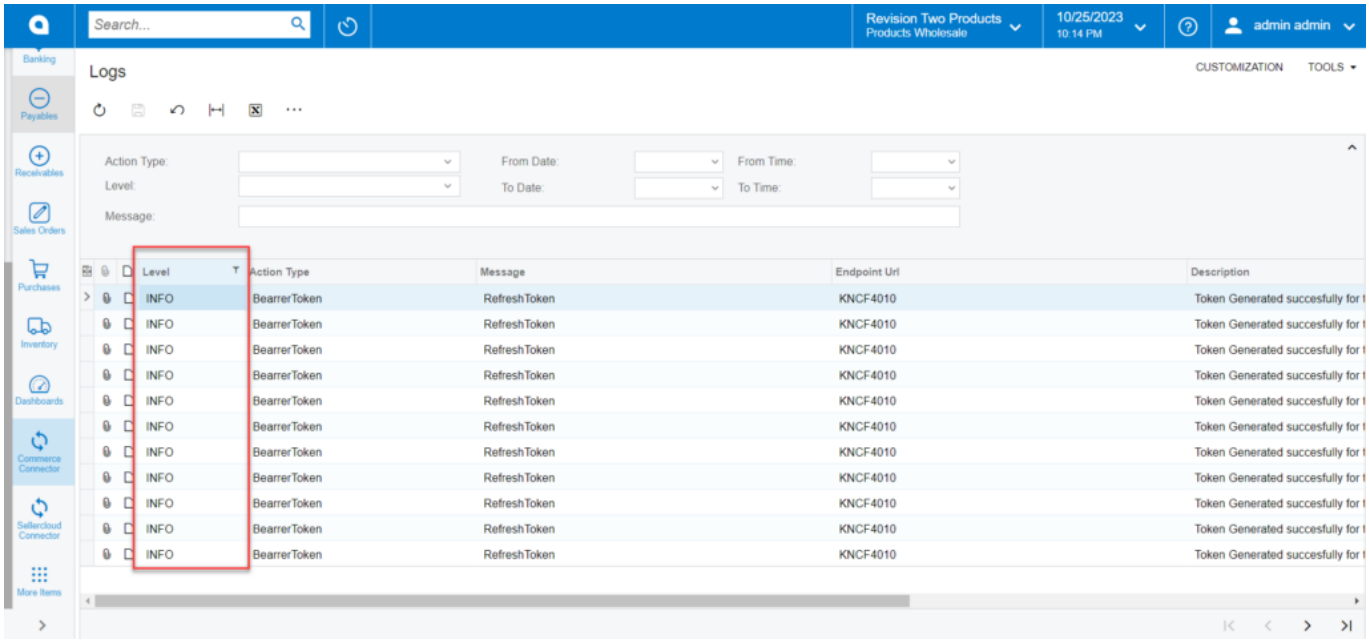
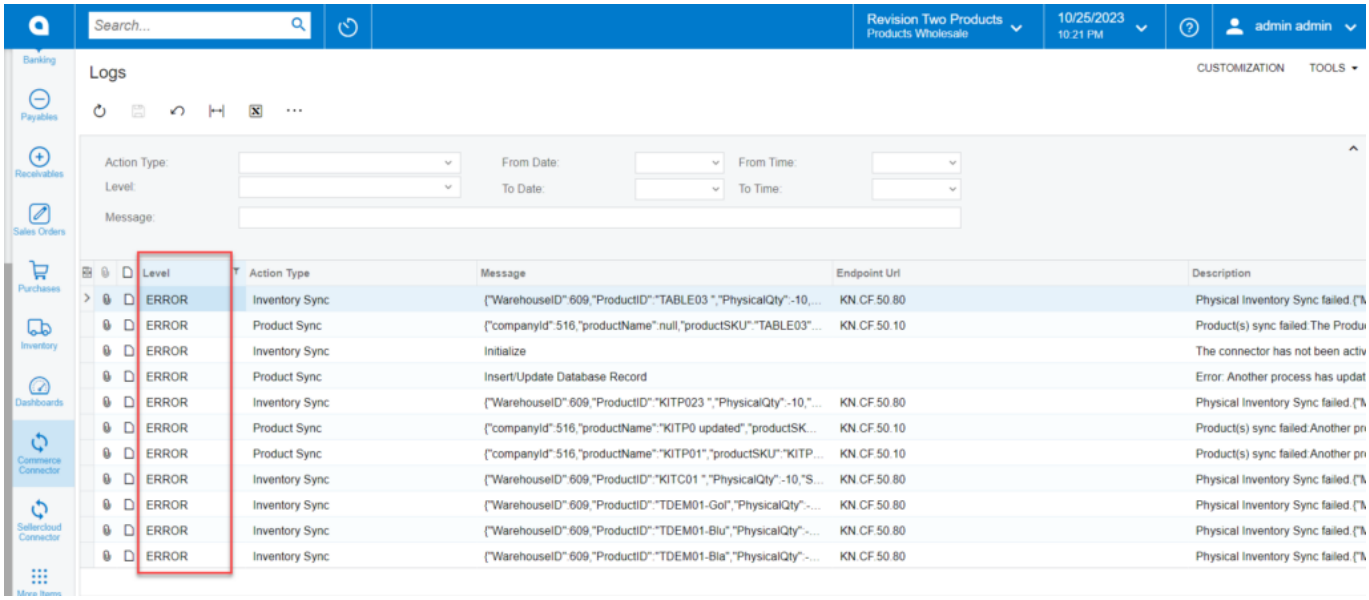
- Logs related to the Info Level will appear on the screen if you choose [Log Info Level].
- Additionally, Logs related to the error level will appear on the screen if you choose the [Error Info Level option].

© 2025 Kensium LLC



log level info



Log error info

© 2025 Kensium LLC